

My Trip to the Southeast

This is a map of the Southeast Region.

Everglades

Today I visited the Everglades
And got to go on an Air boat And got to see the Everglades did you know there are 300 species of birds in the Everglades. There is also lots of swamp marshes and wetlands there too there also is a lot of Animals such as Florida panthers crocodiles fish and much more see you at the next stop

Kennedy space cent

Today I went to the Kennedy Space Center in Cape Canaveral Florida I got to see the Atlantis space shuttle Also I got to play on the simulations. My Favorite part was at lunch when I got to ask questions to real Astronauts

Jamestown

Today I visited Jamestown, Virginia. I got to see the replica ship that the colonists sailed to Jamestown. When the colonists got there they had no water and no food they also had to live with killer Mosquitoes that carries a disease called malaria. However things started to get better. The colonists found a crop that grew well in the area it was called tobacco. Tobacco sold well in England And then in 1619 an English ship arrived in the Virginia colony carrying 20 Africans. They were sold as workers to the American colonies and were forced to work on large farms

Coal Mine

The coal Mine in Appalachia is a mountain area located in the southern part of the Appalachian mountain range. It covers most of the southeast. Appalachia has many rich minerals coal is a important mineral that heats homes and produces electricity. There are underground coal mines that have strip mines that have coal they also have a bluegrass festival near the mine. They also have traditional music of Appalachia

Tennessee

Today I visited the wonders of Tennessee. I visited the Dollywood Amusement park in Pigeon Forge And got to ride a lot of Rollercoasters. After That I went to the Magnificent Mansion of the Tennessean president Andrew Jackson. My Final destination was the Craighead Caverns where I took a refreshing splash in the lost sea which is an underground river

Mardi Gras

Today I went to the French Quarter where they celebrate Mardi Gras. I got to eat King cake And got to compete in the pancake Flipping contest. Also I tried to find the plastic baby in the king cake I Also got to watch the parade and wear beads and eat candy. Finally I got to Experience the amazing architecture of the floats.

Natchez Mississ

- Today I visited a sad stop in a cotton in Natchez Mississippi Where African A were forced to pick cotton. In the Early cotton planters settled in this area to money. Many settlers wanted to make plantations on western lands that belong to the United states. They decided to have slaves so they didn,t have to do the work. So they kidnap African people and bring them to the plantations and make them work without payed. See you at the next stop.

Civil rights Memorial

Today we were in Montgomery Alabama. We visited the civil rights Memorial. Black people were treated unfairly and were segregated in schools, jobs, and other parts of daily life. People began fighting for equal rights through boycotts peaceful protests sit ins and the march on Washington. It was here that Martin Luther king Jr gave his I have a Dream speech in
